

OROZCO HAS QUIT MADERO RANKS TO LEAD VASQUISTAS

Awaits Arrival of Rebel
Army on Outskirts of Chihuahua.

EL PASO, Tex., March 1.—General Orozco today severed his relations with the Madero government and will assume command of the Vasquistas forces upon the arrival of the rebel army under Campa and Salazar on the outskirts of Chihuahua.

This was announced today by Luis Fernandez, chief of Salazar's staff, and the man who put Emilio Gomez into the revolutionary limelight while secretary of the revolutionary junta in San Antonio, Tex.

The Vasquistas hope to leave Juarez late today over the Mexican national line for Chihuahua, but their plans are being interfered with by the blocking of the line on the American side, so that engines and cars which were rushed to El Paso ostensibly for repairs when it became known that Salazar wished to use, cannot be taken back to Juarez.

In addition, a strong guard has been placed at the International railroad bridge on the American side and the track piled up with building stones.

Juarez expected another battle last night when it was reported that Col. Francisco Villas Pries, with 800 federales, was approaching the town. Vasquistas forces were hurriedly sent out in every direction to meet the enemy, but no federales were found.

That Villa is moving upon Juarez is indicated, however, by scouts seen within a few miles of Juarez early today.

American Invasion
Would Be Resisted,
De La Barra Avers

PARIS, March 1.—Arriving here from Switzerland today, Francisco de la Barra, who acted as temporary President of Mexico during the interval between the Diaz and Madero regimes, declared that the revolutionists have the best of intentions, but that they are misguided. He will sail for Vera Cruz on March 17. De la Barra said that he was not a candidate for any office and that the uprising would soon be brought to an end.

end. The result of American intervention he said would be:
"Because of the love of Americans for justice and fair play and their friendship for Mexico, I do not think that there is any possibility of intervention. However, if such an eventuality should occur, I am confident that my countrymen would forget their domestic differences and fight as one man against an invasion."

Sulzer Declares He Will Oppose All Moves Toward Intervention

While at the White House today Congressman Sulzer of New York declared emphatically against any move on the part of the Administration that would precipitate intervention in Mexico.

Mr. Sulzer is chairman of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs and will oppose in his committee and on the floor of the House any movement that contemplates intervention.

From the Sulzer standpoint no such conditions now seems possible. He believes that the revolution is nothing more or less than general insurrection, fostered by a number of petty leaders and dissidents throughout the republic, and that, after all, there is no real menace to the lives and property of Americans residing in the country.

TAFT TO ENTERTAIN GOV. GOLDSBOROUGH AT DINNER TONIGHT

Several Maryland Politicians
Also Will Be White House Guests.

President Taft tonight will entertain Governor Goldsborough and a number of the leading Republicans of Maryland at dinner.

Two weeks ago the President was invited to go to Baltimore to be present at a banquet in honor of the new Republican governor. Mr. Taft accepted this invitation, and later was compelled to decline it on account of the pressure of business in Washington.

At the time he issued invitations to a dinner of his own, as a compliment to the Maryland executive and the governor's political associates.

The invitation list includes former Postmaster General James A. Gacy, former Attorney General Charles J. Bonaparte, Republican State Chairman John E. Hanna, Collector of the Port William F. Stone, Republican National Committeeman William B. Jackson, Gist Blair, George R. Galtner, Brainerd H. Warner, Jr., Gen. Felix Agnus, Col. Robert Garrett, Postmaster W. Hall Harris at Baltimore, Kemp Bartlett, and Judge Oscar Leser.
